Re: Raymond Basri v. Air99 LLC, et al., 23 Civ. 1170 (JGLC)

Dear Judge Clarke:

We represent defendants Richard Gordon and Air99 LLC (together, “Defendants”), in the above-referenced action. We write on behalf of both parties to request a three-day extension, from April 15, 2025, until April 18, 2025, for the parties, pursuant to the Court’s Opinion and Order, dated March 28, 2025, to submit a joint letter proposing trial dates and indicating their position on settlement.

The parties have conferred, and currently are discussing a proposal for additional settlement negotiations. Based on counsel’s obligations in other matters, and the parties’ availability, the parties require a few additional days to complete these discussions. Accordingly, the parties respectfully request until April 18, 2025, to provide the Court with a joint letter proposing trial dates and their proposal on settlement. This is the parties’ first request to extend the due date to file their joint letter.

Respectfully submitted,

YANKWITT LLP
*Counsel for Defendants Air99 LLC and Richard
Gordon*
